Zoning Ordinance Certification

A county or local government may receive zoning ordinance certification by application to Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP). In Crawford County currently the towns of Haney and Utica have zoning ordinance certification. All landowners in Exclusive Ag Zones in the two towns are eligible for credits if they meet certain criteria.

Additional towns in Crawford County may apply to DATCP for zoning certification if they meet or exceed state farmland preservation standards (s. 71.613, Wis. Stats., and ch. 91, Wis Stats.) Text and maps as well as spatial location data used to create the maps must accompany the application.
