Motion by Olson to approve May minutes as printed, second by Stirling.

Discussion of entertainment for 2021 Fair, we are still waiting to get fair dates from the carnival so we can book music acts.

Discussion of the building of the horse barn. The state plans were sent back to the contractor and with changes. The state plans are asking to add more bracing and cement for the poles. The contractor had to raise the price of building by 10,000. Discussion about the fair board helping out with the cost increase.

Motion by Olson, to approve to pay up to $5000 for the building of the Horse Barn, contingent of the Horse Project raising the other $5000 to complete the building of the horse barn, second by Stirling. Motion passed unanimously.

Abby, from Mississippi Valley Conservancy present to the board that her Board of Directors are not willing to pay for half of the surveying because they have had the campground already surveyed. There was discussion about a land swap between the Mississippi Conservancy and Fairgrounds, it would be the same amount of land swapped.

Motion by Dull and pay the whole $900 for the surveying of the Fairgrounds and Stumpdodger's Campground, second by Olson. Roll Call, Motion carried unanimously.
